

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to verify that Ben Gallagher has met all graduation requirements for the Coding Boot Camp Full Stack Flex Web Development program at George Washington University for the period of May 12, 2021 through October 27, 2021. Ben has exceeded the graduation requirements with an Academic Average of an A and exceeded attendance requirements. Ben was a participatory and enthusiastic student. He was engaged and dedicated to his learning process and it showed throughout his work. He demonstrated leadership through group project work and was always willing to assist fellow students in need. The instructional staff and myself see a bright future in this industry for Ben.

- Course Name: Coding Boot Camp
